

I feel that the proposed PCN requirements will place a tremendous burden on many broadcasters due to the increased time and cost factors that will be required for frequency coordination. The Commission needs to look at more input from broadcasters before finalizing 01-75.